

THE RICHMOND DISPATCH--THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1887.

THE BAPTISTS.

SECOND DAY'S WORK OF THE PORTSMOUTH ASSOCIATION.

State Missions--Interesting Speeches and Statements--The Layman's Movement--Foreign Missions, &c.

Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.

NORFOLK, September 28, 1887.

The association opened at 9:30 with devotional exercises for half an hour, conducted by Rev. A. B. Danaway, of Churchland, who delivered a sermon from the twelfth chapter of Paul's Letter to the Romans. Prayer by Rev. Dr. H. M. Wharton, of Baltimore.

Rev. M. S. Reed, of Franklin, Southampton county, read his report on State missions, which was received and adopted.

The report was very well received and $1,250 of the apportionments had paid up.

Rev. H. K. Larson, of Richmond, secretary of the State Mission Board, then addressed the association at length on the subject of the report, making deeply interesting remarks and an able and eloquent appeal in behalf of the cause of missions at home, and a most encouraging statement of the work that had been performed, and is being performed by the State Board and what it was hoped would be done.

He emphasized the fact that white men are becoming more and more like Negroes.

Captain Jordan Taylor, now in his ninety-fourth year, is quite active, and attends our meetings on foot regularly.

The new railroad to pass near our church from Farmville to Charlottesville is already having the effect of raising the price of land along its line.

Many leading Republicans of the county are quietly and silently folding their tents and leaving the Mahone camp.

Mr. Robert Buechele, an ex-delegate to the Assembly of Virginia, is preparing to remove to the city of Birmingham, Ala.

Mr. C. A. Bagby and family will leave in October for the "dark and bloody ground" -- Kentucky.

The Baptists are getting up funds to build a handsome church at the Court-house.

Maysville district voted dry at the last election, and the only drinks to be had are "few and far between."

Our lady citizens to your city command the Richmond merchants for the seventy-two seats of New York city evenly between the County Democratic and Tammany. Irving Hall was left empty.

He closed with a strong appeal to their benevolence, and for them to give to the height of their opportunity and obligations.

Mr. James A. Moran, president of the Laymen's Movement of Virginia, followed in a strong, business-like speech regard to raising funds for the Missions Board and a statement of the apportionments and the amounts raised.

It was mortified to know that only $205 had been raised. He read a list of the apportionments to the various churches of the association and the amount paid down.

The report of the State missions was adopted.

Rev. J. L. Judd, D. D., president of the Board of Foreign Missions, read and approved the report on foreign missions, which was a succinct but a most interesting statement of the work in foreign lands.

The report stated that the amount raised was $1,000.

The people generally are expecting a treat at our next court in the address of Hon. John W. Daniel.

DAVISVILLE NOTES.

(Special to the Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., September 28.—Mr. Flisha Farnett has been nominated by the Democrats for the House of Delegates from Patrick county.

Information has been received from Rev. Dr. Martin, pastor of the Presbyterian church, that his eyes are almost well and that he will return to his work early in November.

Mr. John A. Howe, who recently moved to the city, has been poorly afflicted. A short time ago his young wife died suddenly, leaving one child, which was sent to live with its grandparents in Tennessee. A few days ago the child was taken sick and died before Mr. Howe reached his bedside.

Mr. N. C. Carpenter, who has been employed in the revenue office here for some time past, has gone to Lynchburg to live.

—AFTERNOON SESSION.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

WALKERSTOWN, Sept. 27, 1887.

Floyd Moore, the Republican candidate for the Legislature from this county, opposed the bill introduced by the latter was elected to the Legislature before.

He must rather like being defeated, as he is soon ready for again.

A negro child was killed Sunday while at school at church. It had been in an excavation which had been made by digging dirt for the mill-dam and was buried in the mud.

The people generally are expecting a treat at our next court in the address of Hon. John W. Daniel.

—THE PLATINUM.

The platform was then read, as follows:

"Resolved, That the names of Tilden, Seymour, Hendricks, McNeil, and Johnson, and those of the other candidates for the Presidency, who still remain honest in the faithful public service, while the nomination for Attorney-General, which seems to have been finally settled in favor of Hon. Alanson B. Tilden, be against District Attorney Jackson, Waterhouse of Pittsfield; and,

"That upon this the first assemblage of a Democratic convention for the State since the retirement of Secretary Manning from the Treasury Department, we desire to express our admiration of the wisdom and success which marked his administration of the work which they sustained."

—THE THISTLE'S FIRST DEFEAT.

Clyde Yachting Abounded and Dissident--English Press.

Comments.

(By Anglo-American cable to the Dispatch.)

BOSTON, September 23.—The editors of the Tremont House were filled with delegates to the Republican State Convention at an early hour this morning. The main topic of discussion was the nomination for Attorney-General, which seems to have been finally settled in favor of Hon. Alanson B. Tilden.

The organization was completed this morning, with the following as members of committees: Permanent Organization, Arthur Lord, of Plymouth; Credentials, J. Henry Gould, of Melville; Elections, William F. Draper, of Hopkinton; Calots, Edward Gilman, of Somerville.

Chairman Burdick called the convention to order shortly before noon, and after a brief speech the usual committee were appointed.

The Committee on Organization reported in a few minutes, and Francis W. Rockwell, of Pittsfield, was made chairman. Mr. Rockwell was greeted with great applause, and addressed the convention adjourned.

—THE PLATFORM.

The platform was then read, as follows:

"The unnecessary Federal taxation of the last fiscal year exceeded one billion dollars. Unnecessary taxation is unjust taxation. Therefore the Democracy of New York demand that Federal taxation be straightforward reduced by a sum of not less than one-hundred millions a year, and also respectfully urge upon Congress that a measure shall be adopted which will be intensely meaningful to our people on the part of the result of the judicial inquiry before taking any action."

—THE THISTLE'S FIRST DEFEAT.

Clyde Yachting Abounded and Dissident--English Press.

Comments.

(By Anglo-American cable to the Dispatch.)

WILMINGTON, Sept. 27, 1887.

Floyd Moore, the Republican candidate for the Legislature from this county, opposed the bill introduced by the latter was elected to the Legislature before.

He must rather like being defeated, as he is soon ready for again.

A negro child was killed Sunday while at school at church. It had been in an excavation which had been made by digging dirt for the mill-dam and was buried in the mud.

The people generally are expecting a treat at our next court in the address of Hon. John W. Daniel.

—THE PLATINUM.

The platform was then read, as follows:

"Resolved, That the names of Tilden, Seymour, Hendricks, McNeil, and Johnson, and those of the other candidates for the Presidency, who still remain honest in the faithful public service, while the nomination for Attorney-General, which seems to have been finally settled in favor of Hon. Alanson B. Tilden, be against District Attorney Jackson, Waterhouse of Pittsfield; and,

"That upon this the first assemblage of a Democratic convention for the State since the retirement of Secretary Manning from the Treasury Department, we desire to express our admiration of the wisdom and success which marked his administration of the work which they sustained."

—THE THISTLE'S FIRST DEFEAT.

Clyde Yachting Abounded and Dissident--English Press.

Comments.

(By Anglo-American cable to the Dispatch.)

BOSTON, September 23.—The editors of the Tremont House were filled with delegates to the Republican State Convention at an early hour this morning. The main topic of discussion was the nomination for Attorney-General, which seems to have been finally settled in favor of Hon. Alanson B. Tilden.

The organization was completed this morning, with the following as members of committees: Permanent Organization, Arthur Lord, of Plymouth;

Credentials, J. Henry Gould, of Melville;

Elections, William F. Draper,

of Hopkinton; Calots, Edward Gilman, of Somerville.

Chairman Burdick called the convention to order shortly before noon, and after a brief speech the usual committee were appointed.

The Committee on Organization reported in a few minutes, and Francis W. Rockwell, of Pittsfield, was made chairman.

Mr. Rockwell was greeted with great applause, and addressed the convention adjourned.

—THE PLATFORM.

The platform was then read, as follows:

"The unnecessary Federal taxation of the last fiscal year exceeded one billion dollars. Unnecessary taxation is unjust taxation. Therefore the Democracy of New York demand that Federal taxation be straightforward reduced by a sum of not less than one-hundred millions a year, and also respectfully urge upon Congress that a measure shall be adopted which will be intensely meaningful to our people on the part of the result of the judicial inquiry before taking any action."

—THE THISTLE'S FIRST DEFEAT.

Clyde Yachting Abounded and Dissident--English Press.

Comments.

(By Anglo-American cable to the Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., September 28.—Mr. Flisha Farnett has been nominated by the Democrats for the House of Delegates from Patrick county.

Information has been received from Rev. Dr. Martin, pastor of the Presbyterian church, that his eyes are almost well and that he will return to his work early in November.

Mr. John A. Howe, who has been employed in the revenue office here for some time past, has gone to Lynchburg to live.

—AFTERNOON SESSION.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

WALKERSTOWN, Sept. 27, 1887.

Floyd Moore, the Republican candidate for the Legislature from this county, opposed the bill introduced by the latter was elected to the Legislature before.

He must rather like being defeated, as he is soon ready for again.

A negro child was killed Sunday while at school at church. It had been in an excavation which had been made by digging dirt for the mill-dam and was buried in the mud.

The people generally are expecting a treat at our next court in the address of Hon. John W. Daniel.

—THE PLATINUM.

The platform was then read, as follows:

"Resolved, That the names of Tilden, Seymour, Hendricks, McNeil, and Johnson, and those of the other candidates for the Presidency, who still remain honest in the faithful public service, while the nomination for Attorney-General, which seems to have been finally settled in favor of Hon. Alanson B. Tilden, be against District Attorney Jackson, Waterhouse of Pittsfield; and,

"That upon this the first assemblage of a Democratic convention for the State since the retirement of Secretary Manning from the Treasury Department, we desire to express our admiration of the wisdom and success which marked his administration of the work which they sustained."

—THE THISTLE'S FIRST DEFEAT.

Clyde Yachting Abounded and Dissident--English Press.

Comments.

(By Anglo-American cable to the Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., September 28.—Mr. Flisha Farnett has been nominated by the Democrats for the House of Delegates from Patrick county.

Information has been received from Rev. Dr. Martin, pastor of the Presbyterian church, that his eyes are almost well and that he will return to his work early in November.

Mr. John A. Howe, who has been employed in the revenue office here for some time past, has gone to Lynchburg to live.

—AFTERNOON SESSION.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

WALKERSTOWN, Sept. 27, 1887.

Floyd Moore, the Republican candidate for the Legislature from this county, opposed the bill introduced by the latter was elected to the Legislature before.

He must rather like being defeated, as he is soon ready for again.

A negro child was killed Sunday while at school at church. It had been in an excavation which had been made by digging dirt for the mill-dam and was buried in the mud.

The people generally are expecting a treat at our next court in the address of Hon. John W. Daniel.

—THE PLATINUM.

The platform was then read, as follows:

"Resolved, That the names of Tilden, Seymour, Hendricks, McNeil, and Johnson, and those of the other candidates for the Presidency, who still remain honest in the faithful public service, while the nomination for Attorney-General, which seems to have been finally settled in favor of Hon. Alanson B. Tilden, be against District Attorney Jackson, Waterhouse of Pittsfield; and,

"That upon this the first assemblage of a Democratic convention for the State since the retirement of Secretary Manning from the Treasury Department, we desire to express our admiration of the wisdom and success which marked his administration of the work which they sustained."

—THE THISTLE'S FIRST DEFEAT.

Clyde Yachting Abounded and Dissident--English Press.

Comments.

(By Anglo-American cable to the Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., September 28.—Mr. Flisha Farnett has been nominated by the Democrats for the House of Delegates from Patrick county.

Information has been received from Rev. Dr. Martin, pastor of the Presbyterian church, that his eyes are almost well and that he will return to his work early in November.

Mr. John A. Howe, who has been employed in the revenue office here for some time past, has gone to Lynchburg to live.

—AFTERNOON SESSION.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

WALKERSTOWN, Sept. 27, 1887.

Floyd Moore, the Republican candidate for the Legislature from this county, opposed the bill introduced by the latter was elected to the Legislature before.

He must rather like being defeated, as he is soon ready for again.

A negro child was killed Sunday while at school at church. It had been in an excavation which had been made by digging dirt for the mill-dam and was buried in the mud.

The people generally are expecting a treat at our next court in the address of Hon. John W. Daniel.

—THE PLATINUM.

The platform was then read, as follows:

"Resolved, That the names of Tilden, Seymour, Hendricks, McNeil, and Johnson, and those of the other candidates for the Presidency, who still remain honest in the faithful public service, while the nomination for Attorney-General, which seems to have been finally settled in favor of Hon. Alanson B. Tilden, be against District Attorney Jackson, Waterhouse of Pittsfield; and,

"That upon this the first assemblage of a Democratic convention for the State since